

SCHOOL

SAFETY SUMMIT

Wednesday, Nov. 28
Moore Norman Technology Center

9 - 9:50 a.m. Internet Crimes Against Children – An Overview of Sextortion and Other Child Sexual Exploitation Crimes (1 LEG)

This session will discuss "Sextortion" and other sexual exploitation crimes committed against children online, aspects of the criminal investigation, and how schools can support students who may be victims of these crimes. Presented by: FBI Special Agent David Garrison and FBI Victim Specialist Kim Weems

9:50 - 10:05 a.m. Break

10:05 - 10:55 a.m. Creating a Trauma-Informed Response for your School Following a Mass Casualty Event (1 ETH)

An overview of how first responders, victim services providers, and schools can work together to support a trauma-informed response for the school community in the first days following a mass casualty event. Discussion will include identifying additional stakeholders and resources for crisis response plans; victim needs and resources in the immediate aftermath; and challenges and successes from past events as schools worked towards long-term recovery. Presented by FBI Victim Specialist Kim Weems

10:55 - 11:10 a.m. Break

11:10 - Noon Media Storm and Survival in a Small School: the Achille Story (1 ETH)

Social media spares no one. That was certainly the case when threats made on social media toward a 12-year-old Achille student went viral. Come hear how school officials handled the threats, assured student safety during a difficult time and coped with the media storm that followed. Presented by Rick Beene and Achille staff

Noon - 12:45 p.m. Lunch

12:45 - 1:35 p.m. School Safety from the Perspective of Law Enforcement (1 LEG)

Discussion of Integrated Active Shooter Response for Schools: Developing relationships with emergency response agencies in your area is critical when responding to an active shooter situation. This presentation will cover the importance of prior planning and communication with all emergency response agencies. Presented by Captain Greg Wipfli, Shift III Commander and Sergeant Terry Tilley, School Resource Officer, Midwest City Police Department

1:35 - 1:45 p.m. Break

1:45 - 2:35 p.m. Creating a Safety and Security Plan: Broken Arrow Public Schools (1 LEG)

We will discuss how we address physical security, campus security, threat assessments, staff training, school emergency response teams and crisis response teams. The presentation will include the thought process and implementation behind each area regarding today's threats and/or issues facing schools. This information will be provided in an open discussion format. Presented by Mr. Jeff Martin, Director of Campus Security and Derek Blackburn, Executive Director of Student Services

2:35 - 2:45 Break

2:45 - 3:30 p.m. Trauma-Informed Instruction (1 ETH)

Becoming trauma-informed can be often misunderstood and believed to be another "classroom strategy." Using a trauma-informed approach is a shift in how we perceive and understand our students and schools. It is more about the climate and culture shift than a strategy. This session will include how to use a trauma-informed lens to examine our school policies, procedures, and classroom connection. Presented by Kristin Atchley, Executive Director of Counseling, Oklahoma State Department of Education
