The Art of Being President

Saturday, Feb. 9 • OSSBA Conference Center, Oklahoma City

The above questions and more will be answered in this full day, participative workshop for current and upcoming school board presidents. As leader, the president's role is critical to the functioning of the board. Effective meeting management begins with agenda preparation, teamwork, and building superintendent and staff relations.

This workshop is limited to 60 participants so everyone has an opportunity to have their questions answered. Brandon Carey, OSSBA Staff Attorney and Terri Silver, OSSBA Director of Board Development and former school board member, bring years of experience to the discussion.
